- How do you process weeks like this past one where we saw another example of our human brokenness with the recent school shooting?
- Why is this passage so relevant to our current time?
- Discuss the difference between the following statements: God is love, love is God. Why are these significantly different?
- Are you having a hard time currently loving someone? Spend time this week asking God to give you his strength through the Holy Spirit to love them in a way that goes beyond your own ability.
- Sometimes it's tempting to stop at "liking Jesus" rather than "living like Jesus." Where in your life do you need strength to continue to live like Jesus?
