

APPLICATION QUESTIONS | MAY 15, 2022

- John tells us that our hearts will condemn us when we seek to love God and love others. In what ways does your heart specifically try to condemn you when these opportunities arise?
- John desires to encourage his readers that we can have confidence in God when our hearts condemn us. Like John, how can we encourage our fellow believers?
And who in your community needs to be encouraged past their own self-condemnation?
- Justin asked us what we may need to give up listening to in order to hear the voice of the Holy Spirit. Discuss what might be distracting you from hearing the Holy Spirit, and what you can do to remove that distraction.